“Haunted History of Columbus”

Nellie Kampmann, GUEST SPEAKER

Hilliard Branch, Columbus Metropolitan Library

4500 Hickory Way, Hilliard 43026

Certified hypnotherapist and author Nellie Kampmann works professionally in the field of history. Her interest in local ghost folklore led her to become a tour guide on the Columbus Landmarks Foundation's yearly ghost tours. Nellie blogs about paranormal topics on Haunted History of Columbus, Ohio. She has a book on local ghost stories by the same name.

From the playful spirits of the Kelton House Museum & Garden to the wavy-armed apparition that prowls the fourth floor of Ohio State's main library, Columbus is teeming with ghosts. Join us on a journey to meet mischievous souls and malevolent entities that aren't quite ready to leave the city.

Pretty Funny: Women and Comedy

Linda Mizejewski, GUEST SPEAKER

Columbus Metropolitan Library- Main

96 S. Grant Ave., Columbus, 43215

Linda Mizejewski is a Distinguished Professor of Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies at the Ohio State University. Linda has been a Fulbright Lecturer in Slovakia and Romania, and her research has been supported by the National Endowment for the Humanities and the American Council of Learned Societies. In 2004 she was a winner of Ohio State University's Alumni Distinguished Teaching Award.

Women's comedy has long been a prime spot for women to talk back and break taboos in mainstream popular culture. But women in comedy have traditionally been pegged as either “pretty” or “funny.” This talk is an overview of women's comedy beginning with West and ending with the new generation of women comedians such as Tina Fey, Wanda Sykes, and Ellen DeGeneres who flout the pretty-versus-funny dynamic, targeting glamour and in some cases making it clear that in popular culture, “pretty” almost always means “white.”

Monday, March 11 • 6:30-8:30P

“As a child I was surrounded by domestic craftswomen. The homes of my grandmothers, great aunts, and mother were filled with drawings, writings, quilts and afghans, sewn creations embellished with thread and buttons, and reliquaries containing ephemera and personal treasures. It was directly from them that I first learned to draw, paint, sew, crochet, quilt, embroider, knit, assemble.

As an adult I continued to practice domestic arts. My interests expanded to weaving, painting, ceramics, sculpture, papermaking, and surface decoration techniques such as marbling and paste-painting. I eventually discovered that the book is the perfect vessel to hold and order words and images. ...”
